

CM 203: Introduction to Communication

Tweet Week (15%)

The objective of this assignment is to both engage in and keep track of social media activity. During the course of a week (Thursday, March 19th – Thursday, March 26th), we'll all share what we're reading and reviewing on social media via Twitter using the hashtag #COM203. Each student needs to share a minimum of 30 tweets (~ 4 per day) and engage in the practice of retweeting and favorite-ing tweets. Once the week is up, we'll gather all the tweets, retweets, etc. and look at what the group has posted in class. Then, your job will be to write a 3-4 page (1,000 words max) reflection paper on the Twitter content and activity. The first part of your paper (25%) should summarize the Twitter activity of you and your fellow classmates. The second part of the paper (75%) should offer a reflection on the activity. You should address the following questions in your response paper:

- What themes were present in the content shared?
- What themes or types of content were missing?
- What was unique or important about using Twitter as a medium to share this content?
- What were the drawbacks of using Twitter to share this content?
- Were there certain tweets or topics that were more memorable for you? Less memorable?
- Did this activity encourage you to follow new individuals, groups, etc. on Twitter? Which ones? Why?
- Did this activity lead you to acquire new followers?
- Does this activity reflect standard social media behavior?
- How will this activity shape your use of Twitter in the future (or won't it)?

Students will meet in small groups to share their reflection papers. Your reflection paper will be due on Moodle on Tuesday, March 31st at 9:00 am along with a PDF or screenshots of your individual tweets using the #COM203 hashtag during the week. Please bring a copy of your paper and a printout of your individual tweets to class on for discussion.

 While a more detailed grading rubric will follow for each assignment, it is important to note that all papers should be written in 12-point Times New Roman font. Papers should be double-spaced and have 1" margins all around. Make sure you add page numbers to your paper in the footer and put your name in the header (you'd be surprised how many people forget). A reference list (if applicable) should be on a separate final page(s). Everything should be uploaded as one word document (.doc or .docx) with your Last Name_Assignment as the title (e.g., Becker_TextualAnalysis). We use APA style for citing all references.
